

Summer 2021 2-4th grade

A Capital Mystery Summer

Windsor Montessori & Discovery Center

It's a time of crime in D.C. Let's catch the crooks, foiling their sinister schemes, with K.C. and Marshall, two "meddling kids" worthy of Mystery, Inc! But not old enough to drive!

Wk 1: Who Cloned the President? We'll learn about cloning, play Mirror Mirror and 20 Questions, bake raisin cookies, assemble spiders, use a tape recorder, and much more...

Wk 2: Kidnapped at the Capital. We'll learn about Apollo 11 and the International Space Station, paint plaster rockets, jump to conclusions, bounce balloons, make ice cream, and...

Wk 3: Skeleton in the Smithsonian. We'll learn about skeletons and insects, make grave rubbings, play Bus Stop and Name that Bug, mix fresh lemonade, eat jelly donuts, and much...

Wk 4: A Spy in the White House. We'll learn about printing newspapers, play Wax Museum and Telephone, make string art and a cups and string communication device, eat toasted bagels and drink fresh squeezed OJ, and much more...

Wk 5: Who Broke Lincoln's Thumb? We'll learn about sculpting and adhesives, play Frisbee Golf and the Memory Game, make brownies, create a sculpture, and much more...

Wk 6: Fireworks at the FBI. We'll learn about Time Zones, fireworks, the Most Wanted list, and dog racing, use a Stomp rocket, assemble a missile, sprint, make pizza, and much more...

Wk 7: Trouble at the Treasury. We'll learn about a $29 trillion national deficit, printing money, sleight-of-hand tricks and slow motion video, play What's Different? and Spud, assemble beads and bells for bracelets, drink hot cocoa and marshmallows, and much more...

Wk 8: Mystery at the Washington Monument. We'll learn about the Monument and Spider Monkeys, mix plaster, do freezing experiments, make Nature Prints, hold a Scavenger Hunt, plan a surprise party, make strawberry shortcake and grilled cheese, and much more...

Wk 9: A Thief at the National Zoo. We'll learn about tigers and extinction, play Animal Team Tag and Clue, make a jeweled mirror frame, eat cereal with milk, and much more...

Archery, walks, field trips, Goslee pool, silent reading, gym and playground time, and more will also be included, weather, staff, time and the Governor permitting. Plus Scooby Doo comics!
